About National Housing Bank

The National Housing Bank (NHB) was set up in July 1988, under an Act of the Parliament to operate as a principal agency to promote housing finance institutions both at local and regional levels and to provide financial and other support to such institutions and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto. The main roles of NHB include regulation and supervision, financing, promotion and development.

Need and Objective of the Programme

The principal mandate of the Bank is to promote housing finance institutions to improve/strengthen the credit delivery network for housing finance in the country. Among the multiple responsibilities entrusted to NHB, the development of human resources is a major agenda of the Bank. Accordingly, the Bank has sought to address this partially through training programmes, seminars and symposia on matters related to housing for the officials of the Housing Finance Companies (HFCs), Commercial Banks and Public Housing Agencies.

The one and a half day residential program on “Orientation in Housing Finance” endeavours to familiarize the entry and junior level officers of HFCs with the mechanics of the formal housing finance system in India along with associated opportunities and challenges. The programme aims to cover all operational aspects of housing finance in India. The program envisages an interactive program comprising of various stakeholders of the housing finance industry.
